

Definition of Membership in the Chamber

Individual Membership in the Chamber:

An individual membership in the Chamber shall mean any person not representing a business, firm, corporation, partnership, association or trust. Individual members shall have their name listed in the Chamber's Membership Directory only, except for elected public officials whose position will be listed, and may attend any Chamber event with one guest at member's price.

Business Membership in the Chamber:

A business membership in the Chamber shall mean any individual, business, firm, corporation, partnership, association, institution or trust wishing to advertise their business. Members shall have their business name and contact person highlighted in the business directory with a hyperlink to their website, have their name and business included in all Chamber media ads, invite guests to Chamber events at membership prices, opportunity to host a Chamber meet and greet, opportunity to distribute business literature at Chamber events and an opportunity to include their business literature at any event the Chamber has a display table.

Individual and Business members shall have all rights and privileges as described in Article II, Section III of the Chamber By-Laws.

(Definition of Membership in the Chamber was adopted at the annual meeting on November 15, 2011 by unanimous vote of the Chamber Membership.)
